

SYNERGIZE IT PRODUCTS FOR NON-PROFIT AND RELIGIOUS ORGANISATIONS

For Social Groups, Non-Profits and Religious Organisations, communication is key to effective operations. Relaying a message, spreading the word, reaching a large, captive audience - these are often the bed-rocks of such organisations. Currently, getting such messages across can be time-consuming and troublesome. Surely there must be a more efficient way...

Synergize IT'S portfolio of products could be the solution you are looking for. We can help you build an efficient mobile messaging system and guide you every step of the way, enabling you to communicate quickly to your groups, as well potential group members, and provide a unique, instant, informative service. The beauty of our system is that, unlike flyers or poster promotion, the communication is two-way and conducted in real-time. Group members can respond to your messages, giving them the chance to express opinion or generate discussion.

To bring your group or organisation into the modern world, which is essential if you want to be stand out and be noticed, our service can help you. We are aware that social groups, non-profits and religious organisations are usually run by volunteers on a tight-budget, so we can provide you with a cost-effective, simple to use solution that might even generate a little revenue along the way!
